

Regulations for the use of laboratory services
The Center for Scientific and Technological Equipment

1. Science Laboratory This service is for teaching practice courses only.
2. Students should dress according to Walailak University Regulations on Student Attire B.E. Except for some subjects, subject to the instructor's discretion. and do not wear shorts Do not wear sandals or open-faced shoes. Do not wear jewelry that may cause an accident. for officers Lab staff, professors, researchers, research assistants and visitors to dress politely.
3. Laboratory users (except visitors) must pass a safety training course in the laboratory.
4. Laboratory users must strictly comply with laboratory safety practices.
5. Students report to the laboratory in accordance with the method provided by the laboratory, for example, they must sign the operating record or scan the QR CODE and receive the laboratory key. Upon completion of the operation, the key (if any) must be returned and signed out of the laboratory each time. Loss of the key will incur a fine of 100 baht each time.
6. Check the number and finish of the materials according to the list received. both before and after every operation, if materials, equipment are damaged or lost Must be responsible for the full amount of damages according to the price stated. In the event that the responsible person cannot be found Have everyone in the group or in the room sharing the same set of materials responsible for the full cost incurred. according to the price stated for students to deduct money from damage insurance.
7. If there is an accident or an error during operation The instructor or laboratory staff must be notified immediately.
8. Waste management such as chemicals, agar food Examples of plants or animals After completing the operation to follow the instructions or Strict laboratory waste management practices.
9. When using the laboratory every time The materials, equipment and equipment must be cleaned, including the testing area. Students must help each other maintain the cleanliness of the laboratory and keep it organized and clean at all times.
10. Laboratory users must bring their own materials, equipment used for cleaning and personal safety equipment, such as hand towels, toilet paper, and masks. Chemical goggles and gowns.
11. Do not move tools, equipment and chemicals without permission.
12. It is forbidden to bring or eat food and beverages of any kind in the laboratory.
13. Keep valuables with you while using the laboratory. If lost, the laboratory will not take any responsibility.
14. Smoking is prohibited in the laboratory and surrounding areas of the laboratory building.
15. Do not bring pets into the laboratory.
16. Do not engage in other activities that are not related to the operation.

From now on

Announced on 13 July 2020.

(Asst.Prof.Dr. Phuwadol Bangrak)
Director of The Center for Scientific and Technological Equipment